

Please join us for an evening of cultural fare with the Ergyron (New Dawn) native dance troupe from Russia's Far East. The troupe, sponsored by Russian Governor Roman Abramovich, will perform at the Cosmos Club, Werne Lounge, beginning at 7:00 pm on October 27th.

Ergyron performs indigenous traditions of songs and dances of Chukchi, Yupik, Koryaks, Chuvantsy, Lamuty, Evcny, Evenky, and Aleut cultures and nationalities.

The troupe has traveled throughout Alaska and Washington State offering benefit performances for the Children of Beslan, Russia in memory of the loss of over 350 children, parents and citizens to terrorism and in belief in a New Dawn for the children living with the aftermath of tragedy.

Ergyron concludes their tour with a reception and performance at the Cosmos Club in Washington DC. Those interested in cultures and a unique and exotic blend of indigenous dances that range from Alaska's natives to Russia's vast ethnic highlights will be enthralled with their performance.

Join us for this engaging evening at the Cosmos Club.

Please RSVP to ginna-b@comcast.net or leave a message at 206-818-9793.

Pledge cards will be available at the event for those wishing to donate to the Children of Beslan.

Sponsored by: Governor Roman Abramovich, Dr. Arlon Tussing, Ginna Brelsford, John Tichotsky and the Alaska-Cambridge Associates.
